Quartz Reef Methode Traditionnelle Non Vintage

Vineyard: Quartz Reef, Bendigo Estate, Central Otago

Winemaker: Rudi Bauer

Vine Density: 5000-8000/hectare

Wine analysis at bottling: pH 3.18; TA 8.6g/L; Alc 12.5%; 8 g/L

Winemaker's Notes: Quartz Reef Methode Traditionnelle is a wine of distinction, made in the traditional method to achieve elegance and finesse. Focused, fresh and crisp with a beautiful balance and length. A selected 61% Pinot Noir and 39% Chardonnay from our estate vineyard in Bendigo, Central Otago. Bottle fermented and aged on lees, then riddled and disgorged by hand from the late 2009.

Tasting Notes:

Color: Pale Yellow

Bouquet: Royal gala apple with a hint of lime, brioche

Palate: Flirtatious, Moreish- Enhanced by an invigorating cool, creamy acidity

Reviews/Scores: 90 points: Neal Martin, Wine Advocate "I doubt you will find a better Non Vintage New Zealand sparkler

Bob Campbell MW- "It's got a great texture and satisfyingly dry finish. Sophisticated sparkler with character"
